Table No. 49
With inspiration from Professor Architect Johan Otto von Spreckelsen's, La Grande Arche in the Paris area La Défense, Carsten Buhl have designed a solid wood table.

Like the Triumphal Arch, this table is designed to last for generations to come.

The table is full length 200 x 100 cm, with an active area of 192 x 100 cm. The table is available with two flaps, which are concealed on the legs. All wooden parts are made by massive wood. E.g. Oak.
