Tray Table No. 5
Is there anything better than starting Sunday morning with breakfast served in bed?

With the stylish tray No. 5 which can accommodate both with a morning complait and the Sunday Berlinger, it is one of the highlights of the day. Later, the tray can be used as a table for the Japanese-inspired lunch.

The tray is made of wooden rods assembled by a screw and a threaded pipe. The tray is available in natural or lacquered surface.
